

NETBOX Point

Built-in Socket NETBOX Point

For universal use in offices, libraries, hotels, airports, etc., the NETBOX Point efficiently secures power and data connections.

Thanks to its modular design, the NETBOX Point adapts to its environment and is ideal for use in an 80 mm cable bushing.

The individual communication modules, such as RJ45, HDMI and USB, can be easily exchanged and thus flexibly adapted to different requirements.
